Report Cycle 2001-2002-2003

Dear Mr. Herrera:

Enclosed in response to your notice sent out earlier this year are completed water rights forms for the 3-year report cycle for 2001-2002-2003 for Southern California Edison Co. (SCE) Supplemental Statements of Water Diversion and Use as listed in Attachment 1. The last such filing for these statements was made with SCE letter of December 28, 2001. Information sheets indicating ownership, location, and parcel numbers for each of these statements was submitted with our prior 1997 filing.

GENERAL INFORMATION PERTAINING TO WATER RIGHTS IN CALIFORNIA

There are two principal types of surface water rights in California. They are riparian and appropriative rights.

A riparian right enables an owner of land bordering a natural lake or stream to take and use water on his riparian land. Riparian land must be in the same watershed as the water source and must never have been severed from the sources of supply by an intervening parcel without reservation of the riparian right to the severed parcel. Generally, a riparian water user must share the water supply with other riparian users. Riparian rights may be used to divert the natural flow of a stream but may not be used to store water for later use or to divert water which originates in a different watershed, or return flows from use of groundwater.

An appropriate right is required for use of water on nonriparian land and for storage of water. Generally, appropriative rights may be exercised only when there is a surplus not needed by riparian water users. Since 1914 new appropriators have been required to obtain a permit and license from the State.

Statements of Water Diversion and Use must be filed by riparian and pre-1914 appropriative water users. The filing of a statement (1) provides a record of water use, (2) enables the State to notify such users if someone proposes a new appropriation upstream from their diversion, and (3) assists the State to determine if additional water is available for future appropriators.

The above discussion is provided for general information. For more specific information concerning water rights, please contact an attorney or write to this office. We have several pamphlets available. They include:

NOTES:

Statement Nos. 1819, 1826, 1829, 1832, 1833, 1834, 1835, 1836, 1837, 1838, 1839, 3178, and 7773 have all been discontinued and indicated as such on filings of previous report forms for these statement numbers. Consequently, no report forms were issued for these statement numbers in the current cycle and therefore none are included in this filing.

No report form was issued in the current filing cycle for Statement No. 1831 because it was discontinued as a redundant report of the use already contained in the report form for License No. 148.

Statement No. 7783 was shown as "Unnamed Spring: Tributary to Lee Vining Creek" on the report form for the 1988-89 filing. The name was changed by staff on the current report form to "Glacier Canyon: Tributary to Tioga Lake." Nevertheless, the same basis for measurement of use was reported in both filings.

GENERAL INFORMATION PERTAINING TO WATER RIGHTS IN CALIFORNIA

There are two principal types of surface water rights in California. They are riparian and appropriative rights.

A riparian right enables an owner of land bordering a natural lake or stream to take and use water on his riparian land. Riparian land must be in the same watershed as the water source and must never have been severed from the source of supply by an intervening parcel without reservation of the riparian right to the severed parcel. Generally, a riparian water user must share the water supply with other riparian users. Riparian rights may be used to divert the natural flow of a stream but may not be used to store water for later use or to divert water which originates in a different watershed, or return flows from use of groundwater.

An appropriative right is required for use of water on nonriparian land and for storage of water. Generally, appropriative rights may be exercised only when there is a surplus not needed by riparian water users. Since 1914 new appropriators have been required to obtain a permit and license from the State.

Statements of Water Diversion and Use must be filed by riparian and pre-1914 appropriative water users. The filing of a statement (1) provides a record of water use, (2) enables the State to notify such users if someone proposes a new appropriation upstream from their diversion, and (3) assists the State to determine if additional water is available for future appropriators.

The above discussion is provided for general information. For more specific information concerning water rights, please contact an attorney or write to this office. We have several pamphlets available. They include:
